GOD'S WORK, OUR HANDS

FROM THE PASTOR

The whole congregation of the Israelites complained against Moses and Aaron in the wilderness. The Israelites said to them, "If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt, when we sat by the fleshpots and ate our fill of bread; for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger." Then the LORD said to Moses, "I am going to rain bread from heaven for you, and each day the people shall go out and gather enough for that day. In that way I will test them, whether they will follow my instruction or not.

Then Moses said to Aaron, "Say to the whole congregation of the Israelites, 'Draw near to the LORD, for he has heard your complaining.'" And as Aaron spoke to the whole congregation of the Israelites, they looked toward the wilderness, and the glory of the LORD appeared in the cloud. The LORD spoke to Moses and said, "I have heard the complaining of the Israelites; say to them, 'At twilight you shall eat meat, and in the morning you shall have your fill of bread; then you shall know that I am the LORD your God.'"

Exodus 16:2-4,9-12

Dear, United In Christ,

Have the kids started dragging their feet yet?

Obviously, Kelsey and I don't have any kids, but I can still remember what it was like to round this corner of the summer when I was in grade school. It was about this point in the year that my mom would start getting the three of us kids ready to head back into the routine of the dreaded school year. It started with a couple day trips; we would go out to get new backpacks and lunchboxes, new shoes (since we inevitably ruined ours during the freedom of the summer), and even the foundations of a new wardrobe to get us through the new year. It was also about this time of the summer when Mom and Dad would start to once again start enforcing the limits of our bedtime so that “it will be easier when school starts.” This month of August was always one of getting ready for what was coming. And I hated it.

I mean, I never explicitly rebelled against the preparations, but you can bet your bottom dollar that I (quite literally) dragged my feet through the whole ordeal. I would shuffle around the department stores and outlets with an indecisive bent that I’m sure must have driven my mother insane. I would silently protest the reinstating of a regulated bedtime by willing myself to stay awake in bed until at least forty-five minutes later than I was sent there. And don’t even get me started on the dreaded ritual of trying on jeans! For this, my most loathsome foe, I saved the one verbal tool in my arsenal; I whined “do I have to??” and I complained about the whole process.

If that’s what my poor mother had to deal with, then I can only imagine what Moses and God felt in the face of the Israelites’ complaining during their long march out of Egypt. The wilderness journey set before them clearly provided ample opportunities for them to drag their feet, as it were, but on occasion, the feet dragging turned into outright complaining. “If only we had died by the hand of the LORD in the land of Egypt,” they cry, “for you have brought us out into this wilderness to kill this whole assembly with hunger.”

In short, the people are not amused. This journey, this wandering, is not exactly their cup of tea. From their vantage, things were better before. At least in Egypt they had a certain amount of security in knowing how, from where, and when their next meal would come! Now, with so much uncertainty ahead of them, their worry has turned into resentment for what God and Moses have in store.

Yet, for all of their complaining, for all of their feet-dragging, God still provides for the Israelites' needs. With quail and manna, God provides for the people who gripe about God's way. With all the patience due a mother or a saint, God and Moses attend to the complaining people and provide for them, even when it may have been easier to "turn this car around!" Thank God for that!

GOD IS WITH YOU!

If you find yourself dragging through these dog days of summer, know that the God who bears all complaints is here with you. Whatever gripes, complaints, or anxieties you may have about this journey of faith together, know that the God who led the Israelites through the unknown wilderness continues to care deeply for God's people, and that means you too. No matter the protest we may raise, God's exodus promise is to continue to care and provide for us through it all. As we continue through this month of preparation, know that God has already prepared your way in God's self, even if your feet drag along the way.

Yours, united in Christ,

~ Pastor Justin

COMMUNION DAY

Has your student grown increasingly curious about what we do around the Lord's Table? Do they want to know more about being included in sharing this sacrament with God's people? Pastor Justin will be hosting a Communion Day for students looking to learn more as they prepare for their own First Communion and for students who would like a bit of a refresher. We will meet at the church at 10am on Monday, August 13. We will spend the day getting a full snapshot of why and how we do what we do around the Eucharist. At the end of the day, we will gather in the spirit of service that Jesus exemplified with his friends to host a spaghetti supper for students' families and show them some of what we've learned.

If you have a student who is interested in joining us for this day, please let Pastor Justin know!

NEW MEMBER SUNDAY

Our next New Member Sunday will take place during worship on September 2! We look forward to this opportunity to formally join together in God's mission and celebrate with those who want to take part in the ministries of United In Christ.

If you are interested in joining the congregation or would simply like more information on what membership entails, please contact Pastor Justin or leave a message with Terri in the office.

Arna M. Dershem

Esther M. Minium
Sept. 23, 1926 - July 2, 2018

Esther Marie Minium, 91, of Heather Court, Nottingham Village, Northumberland, passed away at her residence on Monday, July 2, 2018.

A native of Union County, she was born Sept. 23, 1926, in Lewisburg, a daughter of the late Ralph J. and Mary (Libby) Swanger. She was married to Nelson Minium who survives.

Esther attended Milton schools. She was employed as the switchboard operator at Evangelical Community Hospital, Lewisburg, retiring after 25-plus years of service.

She was a member of the United In Christ Lutheran Church of Lewisburg and was active in its Sunday school class. Esther loved spending time with her family, doing embroidery, attending church activities, and country music.

In addition to her husband, she is survived by three daughters and sons-in-law, Celia and Woodrow Warren of Lewisburg, Melody and Larry Erb of Lewisburg, and Laurel and Timothy Hertz of Milton; one son and daughter-in-law, Dean and Carrie Minium of Milton; 15 grandchildren; and 25 great-grandchildren; three sisters-in-law, Dora Minium of Montoursville, Celia Stamm of Lewisburg and Dottie Minium of Harrisburg; and numerous nieces and nephews.

She was preceded in death by one great-grandson, Blake Kovilaritch; one great-granddaughter, Lily Katheryn Warren; and five brothers, Leroy, Neil, James, Norman, and Bruce Swanger.

Friends and relatives were received from 10-11 a.m. Monday, July 9, 2018 at United In Christ Lutheran Church, 1875 Churches Road, Lewisburg, followed by the funeral at 11, with her pastor, the Rev Justin Lingenfelter officiating.

Burial followed in Church Hill Cemetery.

Donations in Esther's memory may be made to United In Christ Lutheran Church, 1875 Churches Road, Lewisburg, PA 17837.

Funeral arrangements were by the John H. Shaw III Funeral Home, Market and Eighth streets, Lewisburg.

Arna M. Dershem, 83, of New Columbia, passed away at her residence on Thursday, June 28, 2018.

Born May 19, 1935 in New Columbia, a daughter of the late Harold and Inez Dershem.

Arna graduated from Bucknell University.

Arna grew up on her parents' farm in New Columbia – the place that was her home all her life. Never afraid of physical labor, she cherished her work on the farm, especially driving the tractor. Always the dutiful daughter, she cared for her parents in their times of ill health, and was their caregiver until their deaths. In fact, she sacrificed her life and work as a music teacher in New York to come home and care for her parents.

Arna was an active member of United In Christ. She served as the organist and choir director for many years, and once taught the choir to sing “A Mighty Fortress is Our God” in German for Reformation Sunday. She served on the worship and music committee, education committee, and church council. She taught Sunday School and Adult Forum and was particularly knowledgeable about the Bible.

One of her gifts to her community was writing a history of White Deer Township, a volume that can be found in many local libraries and homes. As an historian of the area, she collected facts, narratives, and pictures that told the story of how the area was settled, developed, and grew into the community it is today. She also applied her historian skills by writing the history of St. John's Lutheran Church. Her inquisitive mind led her to ask many questions and engage in her own study of scripture that enlightened her fellow congregants and challenged many pastors!

Arna was no stranger to illness, and battled cancer more than once in her life. Yet she always maintained a positive attitude and a smile. Her dignity, intelligence, talent, love for her dog, and faithfulness to her church and Lutheran heritage will be remembered by her church family. She is survived by several cousins.

Interment was at Highland Cemetery, New Columbia. Arrangements were handled by the Dale Ranck Funeral & Cremation Care, Milton.

UPPER SUSQUEHANNA SYNOD

God's Work. Our Hands.

REFLECTIONS ON THE 2018 ASSEMBLY

Change in format and shared conversations were a big part of this year's synod assembly and I want to thank everyone for their willingness and courage, as we lived through those two days together.

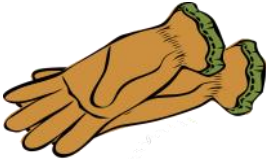

The day of business went well, with folks lifting up as a highlight the opening worship by camp staff. We also appreciated having Rev. Amy Reumann back to our territory and hearing her updates with advocacy ministries across the church.

Interesting enough, as human nature plays out, the biggest "complaint" shared – or rather, disappointment – was that folks missed having the popcorn and soda. That part was out of our control as Thrivent Financial, the annual providers of the popcorn and soda, were unable to come this year. But the best part for me was watching the engagement of folks sharing their stories with one another on Saturday. And the result, from the notes shared and the comments on evaluation forms, was a huge positive.

So now that we have input from folks around the synod, I ask that everyone keep our synod in prayer, praying for the Spirit's guidance as we discern our future steps. Please hold in prayer your synod staff and our mission strategy team as we work through what you have shared and where God is leading us.

The Dandelion Run, begun in 2002, is organized by Joel and Shelley Heasley of Middleburg. It was named in honor and memory of Rev. Glenn E. Heasley, Jr., former Assistant to the Bishop of the Upper Susquehanna Synod of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America. Glenn's favorite "flower" was the dandelion. Heasley's widow, Shirley, is also involved in the planning of the race.

THANK

Here is a personal note of thanks to United In Christ for providing a crucial piece of our Summer Lunch and Learning program: lunch! We had such a wonderful time this summer, each day, at both Meadow View and Essex Place. It was such a relief to have lunch taken care of each day and to be able to focus on managing activities or free-time outside. Each week, the participants greatly appreciated and enjoyed the lunches you helped provided. Attendance was great this summer, so oftentimes we only had a few extra sandwiches left over. When we did have leftovers, I was able to visit households where I knew there were large families and offer them the remaining lunches or snacks. They were always appreciative. And I am appreciative of all of you, so thank you, again, for making the Meadow View and Essex Place summer camps a part of your summer lunch provisions.

Sincerely, Jon Hunsberger

Thank you for sending me to Camp Mount Luther Day Camp. I had fun swimming, all camp worship, and staying overnight with all my new friends. My favorite Bible story was Shadrach, Meshach and Abednego. I had so much fun that I'm going back again for a second week. In Christian love, Kamden Swanger

YOU

Thank you thank you thank you to everyone for celebrating with us last month! Between an anniversary (1st year here at UIC), and anniversary (3rd year for Kelsey and I) and a birthday (my 27th), there was certainly a lot for me to be thankful for. Your cards and gifts were incredibly touching and generous. Even one year in, you have already been an incredible blessing to me and I look forward to what's next!

~ Pr. Justin

Thank you to our United In Christ family for all the love and prayers during Only's illness and passing. Mom was baptized here in St. John's and no matter where she lived she always considered it home. The support you gave us both made all the difference through that most difficult time.

Sincerely, Judy Rishel

A huge thank you to Ken and Ruby Baker for volunteering in the office while I was away on vacation!!
